

Nihongo

Japanese

kiritsu	stand
rei	bow
chakuseki	be seated
onegaishimasu	please (do for us)
~san	what you put after a name
~kun	what you put after a boy's name
~sensei	what you put after a teacher's name
↑ *be careful to not use these with your own name sensei	teacher
ohayoo	good morning (informal) ohayoo gozaimasu	good morning (formal)
konnichiwa	hello
sumimasen	excuse me
jya matane	see you later
sayoonara	good bye
(o)namae wa?	What is your name?
_____ desu.	(it is/I am) _____ * don't use san or kun here doozo yoroshiku	nice to meet you.
(o)genki desu ka.	How are you? (Are you "genki"?)
hai, genki desu.	Yes, I'm well. (I'm "genki.") doozo	here you are (handing something to someone) doomo arigatoo gozaimasu doomo arigatoo arigatoo gozaimasu arigatoo doomo	thank you, thanks (longer phrases are more formal, shorter ones are less formal) dooitashimashite 	you are welcome

