

Separate the words from our Spanish Classroom vocabulary list into words that start with UN and words that start with UNA(S). If you do it correctly the words should fit exactly into this chart. (Don't worry about including the bonus vocabulary at the bottom of the page.)

I have started this assignment for you.

| UNA/UNAS words            | English Meaning     |
|---------------------------|---------------------|
| 1. una calculadora | a calculator |
| 2.                        |                     |
| 3.                        |                     |
| 4.                        |                     |
| 5.                        |                     |
| 6.                        |                     |
| 7.                        |                     |
| 8.                        |                     |
| 9.                        |                     |
| 10.                       |                     |
| 11.                       |                     |
| 12.                       |                     |
| 13.                       |                     |
| 14.                       |                     |
| 15.                       |                     |

| UN words               | English Meaning |
|------------------------|-----------------|
| 1. un boligrafo | a pen    |
| 2.                     |                 |
| 3.                     |                 |
| 4.                     |                 |
| 5.                     |                 |
| 6.                     |                 |
| 7.                     |                 |
| 8.                     |                 |
| 9.                     |                 |
| 10.                    |                 |
| 11.                    |                 |

Reflection

Guessing is okay here. Just think about it for a bit. You might just figure it out. ☺

Do you have an idea why or how these words might be different?

Why does "tijeras" get an "s" after the una? "unas tijeras"

mouse Spanish: ratón French: souris Japanese: nezumi